Our only comment concerns paragraph b(2)(h)(1) of the draft headquarters regulation, the wording of which seems to assume that there will be unusual abilities and potential warranting consideration of the individual's continued employment. We suggest restatement as follows: "The employee's service record, including the length of his service and the nature of his job performance, ~~with a~~ ~~statement of the~~ and unusual abilities and potential which warrant consideration of his continued employment."

Chief,
